

GOLDEN MILE SELECTION _____

VILLA FALCO KITCHEN & MORE

Italylab Special Experience

What to Expect

Donna Donatella opens the doors of her 17th century house to share with you the secrets behind a traditional neapolitan meal. She will lead you through the history and legends related to most beloved recipes of southern Italy cuisine, underlining the connection between the cultures that traversed this ancient land and the born of these masterpiece dishes.

The typical mediterranean ospitality mixed to an incredible scenario makes of Villa Falco a wonderful location for a traditional meal. Set on the slopes of Vesuvius, it offers a unique composition of environments: a huge garden composed of patio, greenhouse, private Chapel, saddlery to experience before the lunch. A special tour in a way of life.

Recipes & Stories

The rice sartù born from a deception: "Sartù" derives from a distortion by the Neapolitan dialect of the french term "sor tout" which indicates a special coat or cloak, in this case it refers to the breadcrumbs that, like a cloak, covers the rice timbale. This is just one of the thousands of curiosities that you can discover by sitting at our table. It will be like a tasty journey through time.
